

Alcohol Compliance Check and ID Verification Training Follow up Quiz

Employee Name: _____

Date: _____

1. If you believe the (purchaser or guest) is intoxicated, you have the right to decline service. True or False
2. You should make sure the ID actually matches the person. Check the picture and the feature descriptions to make sure they correspond with the person using it. True or False
3. What is the legal drinking age in Wisconsin? A. 18 B. 19 C. 20 D. 21
4. In order to sell alcohol, you need a valid bartender license. The license does not need to be present with you while you are serving/working. True or False
5. Law enforcement can issue citations for:
 - A. Selling liquor to a minor
 - B. Selling or serving alcohol when it is not permitted.
 - C. Serving a guest who is or appears to be intoxicated.
 - D. All of the above
6. For easy reference, Wisconsin Driver's Licenses and Identification Cards for minors are vertical in format and indicate the dates in which the holder turns 18 and/or 21 years of age. True or False
7. When checking an ID prior to selling alcohol, employees should:
 - A. Check the expiration date of the drivers license/ID that was presented
 - B. Check the reverse side lettering of the card
 - C. Ask questions about basic information displayed on the card, such as date of birth, address, middle initial or spelling of last name
 - D. Ask for a second form of valid ID if in doubt of identity
 - E. All of the above
8. When selling alcohol products, employees of licensed retailers should minimally demand proof of age of anyone appearing to be under the age of 30? True or False
9. An operator's license is good:
 - A. Only at the store or tavern where the licensee was employed when the license was initially issued.
 - B. In any premises in the municipality where the license was issued
 - C. Anywhere in the State of Wisconsin
10. If a customer presents an out of state drivers license/ID card and you are unsure if it is real, you could:
 - A. Follow your store policy about out of state licenses
 - B. Contact Law Enforcement to assist with verifying the ID
 - C. Refuse the sale
 - D. Ask for a second form of valid ID
 - E. All of the above are acceptable options